

STEPS ARE TAKEN TO ORGANIZE NEW CO-OPERATIVE PLAN

Farmers of This Section Would Build Great Creamery and Sell their Butter, Eggs, Poultry, etc., Through the Co-operative Plan.

First steps towards the organization of a series of cream and poultry co-operative marketing associations by the Kentucky Farmers' Union, were taken Saturday afternoon at a mass meeting of farmers which was held at the courthouse for the purpose of outlining the project. E. L. Harrison state president; H. C. Pierce, director of produce; J. D. Clark, W. G. Swanson, representative from the state department of agriculture, and Hon. W. C. Hanna, state commissioner of agriculture were the chief speakers.

The two associations to be organized, the Farmers' Union Cream Association and the Farmers' Union Poultry Association will handle the output from Mason, Lewis, Fleming, Robertson and Bracken counties. More than 2,000 contracts, compiled by the union will be distributed.

These contracts embody the best ideas of the largest co-operative dairy and poultry associations in the United States, such as the Central California Poultry Producers' Association, Poultry Producers of Southern California and New Jersey. The cream contracts are similar to those used by the New York State Dairyman's Co-operative Association which has a membership of 60,000.

An organization committee was selected to canvass the producers to see who will join the proposed associations. The produce handled will be shipped to Boston, New York and Philadelphia, Mr. Pierce said. It is believed that the farmers in these counties will benefit by some $60,000 a year, by selling direct to the consumer thus eliminating the speculator.

A central shipping station will be established at Maysville, with substations at each county seat of the other counties comprising the district. Central stations also will be established at Bowling Green, Campbellsville, Franklin, Glasgow and at several points in the Bluegrass. With the establishment of the first central shipping stations, others will be organized by members of the Farmers' Union in Clark, Scott, Fayette, Jessamine, Harrison, Woodford and Montgomery counties.

The five counties, Mason, Lewis, Bracken, Fleming and Robertson, are the largest producers of cream and poultry in the state and are being organized first for this reason.

The Maysville creamery will handle in a year approximately 800,000 pounds of butter, which will bring in the neighborhood of $280,000, according to Mr. Pierce. It will handle also about 800,000 pounds of condensed butter milk, which at 3 cents a pound will bring $24,000, he said.

Approximately 200,000 hens will produce 11,520 eggs in a year, which will be shipped to Eastern markets. About 200,000 hens will be sold, which together with the eggs will bring more than $400,000, Mr. Pierce said.

PRODIGAL SON IS BASIS FOR STIRRING MESSAGE

Evangelist at the Big Tent Revival Brings Interesting and Soul Stirring Message on the Theme.

Evangelist Howard Friday night gave a stirring message on "The Young Man Who Had Spent His All" or "The Prodigal Son." His text was: "And when he had spent all, he came to himself and said I will arise and go to my father." Evangelist Howard said:

"This young man spent his time in riotous living. He absolutely wasted his time. There are lots of people here under this tent tonight who have spent your time in sin, without faith in God. You may spend your time so that you can make money, and then waste your money as did the prodigal son. This young man not only wasted his time and money but he spent his fathers and mothers advice. Many sons and daughters are sending their parents to their graves, because they will not heed that mothers or that fathers advice. That young man or that young woman who is recklessly spending his or her parents advice is spending something of rare quality. Young people, if you have not been heeding the advice of your mother, or of your father be careful. Most every father and mother covets for their children the very best, and you should reverence them for it. In this age we need to have more reverence for our fathers and mothers. This young man spent his mothers prayers. What are you going to do with your mother's prayers?"

A special feature of the service Friday night was a duet, entitled "My Mothers Prayers," which was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Cox immediately after the sermon. This special number was enjoyed by everyone who attended the service.

JOHN W. YERKES DIED ON FRIDAY AT HIS DANVILLE HOME

Prominent Republican Dies After Long Illness—Had Been United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Danville, Ky., June 24. — John Watson Yerkes, former United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue and widely known Republican political leader, died at his home here Friday afternoon after an extended illness. His condition gradually grew worse until 2:10 o'clock when the end came.

For many years he had been prominently identified with the legal, educational, commercial and industrial interests of his town and state.

John Watson Yerkes was born at Lexington, Kentucky, April 1, 1854. He was the son of Rev. Stephen Yerkes, D. D. a minister in the Presbyterian church, who was born in Bucks county, Pennsylvania, June 27, 1817, and died at Danville, Kentucky, March 28, 1896. The mother of John Watson Yerkes was Amanda Lovell, daughter of William and Henrietta Lovell, of Baltimore, Maryland.

John Watson Yerkes graduated at Centre College, Kentucky, in 1873. When he received the degree of A. B. and in 1876 that of A. M. After leaving college he entered on the study of law at the Law Department of the University of Michigan, and was graduated there in 1877, receiving the degree of LL. B. Immediately thereafter he engaged in the practice of his profession at Danville, and was appointed Registrar in Bankruptcy.

Mr. Yerkes early became prominently identified with the legal, educational, commercial and industrial interests of this town and state. He was president of the first State Commercial and Industrial Convention held at Louisville, and was a commissioner to the Columbian and Atlanta Expositions. He served as Master in Chancery from 1888 until 1902, and in 1897 was appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for the Eighth District of Kentucky by President McKinley, who, in December, 1900, appointed him Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, D. C., which position he continued to hold under President Roosevelt.

Mr. Yerkes was a Republican both by inheritance and choice. He was chairman of the Republican State Committee of Kentucky from 1891 until 1896, and occupied that position when the state elected its first Republican Governor, secured control of the Legislature, and increased its representation in Congress and on the State Court of Appeals bench. He was three times elected member of the Republican National Committee from Kentucky.

In 1900 Mr. Yerkes was unanimously nominated for Governor by the largest state convention ever held by his party in Kentucky, and although it was a Presidential year, and therefore brought out the entire Democratic vote, he was defeated by only 3,500 votes, leading the Republican electoral ticket by 3,000, and receiving nearly 40,000 more votes than any Republican nominee for Governor ever received, up to that time.

CHILD WELFARE CONFERENCE.

Children of all ages up to six years will be examined free at the Mason County Health Office, 215 Court street, on Monday, June 26th, beginning at 10 a. m. Dr. Annie S. Veech, Director of the State Bureau of Child Hygiene, will be present and will direct the clinic. She will be assisted by several local physicians and by the public health nurses. This will be a wonderful opportunity for parents to consult the physicians on questions concerning the welfare of their children. The office should be crowded all day.

On Tuesday, June 27th, same place and hours, colored children will be given the same opportunity. Only children of pre-school age are desired at these clinics. Sick babies should not be brought to a clinic, but parents of delicate children should especially welcome this chance for assistance in caring for them.

Veech, Director of the State Bureau of Child Hygiene, will arrive in Maysville Sunday evening, to spend the week with the Mason County Health Department and assist in several child welfare conferences throughout the county. EXAMINING TRIAL OF MRS. SOISTER TO BE HELD MONDAY

Witnesses Are Summoned to Appear Before Lewis County Magistrate to Testify in Examination of Maysville Woman.

An examining trial will be given Mrs. Nancy A. Soister, mother of Mrs. Dewey Sweet, who is charged with the death of an infant born to Mrs. Sweet, the body of which infant was found in a deserted well on a farm in the Trinity neighborhood two weeks ago.

Sheriff C. M. Devore went to the Springdale neighborhood Saturday morning to summons witnesses to appear before Squire Q. V. Truesdell at Hoop School House at Trinity on Monday morning at 10 o'clock for the examination.

Evidence in this examination is expected to bring to light the truth or falsity of the very serious charge against the Springdale woman, who is charged with permitting, by neglect, the death of an infant born to her daughter, then unmarried. It is understood that the Commonwealth will endeavor to go into all phases of the case very thoroughly in an attempt to learn who is responsible for the baby's death and who placed its little body, wrapped in an old sack, in the well on the farm where the Soister family formerly lived.

Officials say that the father, Tom Soister, knew about the baby's body being in the well for when he sold the farm upon which the well was located, he informed the purchaser that the well water was unfit for drinking and on several occasions warned him about using the old well.

Both Mr. Soister and his son-in-law, Dewey Sweet, were in Maysville Saturday to obtain counsel to defend the case. Members of the family contend that the charge is a "frame-up" by neighbors and that they will be enabled to prove their innocence while the officials believe, beyond a doubt, they have solved the mystery of the babe-in-the-well.

MANY TO TAKE IN CINCINNATI EXCURSION.

GERMAN FOREIGN MINISTER KILLED BY AN ASSASSIN

Foreign Minister in Cabinet Is Slain By Pistol Shot Fired From Automobile—Assassin Escapes.

Berlin, June 24. — Walter Rathenau, German foreign minister, was assassinated today.

He was shot dead in the Gruenwald while on his way to his office. The shot was fired by a man in a motor car. The assassin first hurled a hand grenade and then opened fire with a revolver. He made a clean getaway.

Rathenau was one of the most powerful men in the German government. It was he who conducted the negotiations with the Russians at Genoa which led to the German-Russian treaty reopening trade and relations between the two countries.

Upon his return to Berlin after the Genoa conference, he was criticized by some elements for dealing with the Soviet representatives.

Rathenau always was considered Germany's leading expert on reconstruction matters and war foreign minister in the former Wirth ministry. When this cabinet was reformed last winter Rathenau was made acting foreign minister.

WHY NOT SOME BOAT RACES?

There appears to be a great revival of interest throughout the whole country in small motor boats. This is true to an extent as to Maysville.

Throughout the country this season there are many regattas scheduled but so far nothing has been heard of boat races on the Ohio at Maysville. There was some little talk last year about a series of races but the matter was dropped without any action being taken. If there are enough motor boat enthusiasts in Maysville to form an association, why not arrange a series of races for a Labor Day celebration?

The old boat races held in Maysville were great successes and some of the fastest motor boats on inland waters were attracted here. The race always brought a large crowd and they were always well supported by local people.

Why not revive interest in pleasure on the Ohio as well as business?

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington. — "For the encouragement of thrift, the Treasury Department is now offering the most attractive security ever offered by the government to small savers," declares the Republican Publicity Association. "These securities in small amounts, are sold at a price which, at the end of five years, gives the investor a return of 5 per cent. interest year year. This is done by allowing a rate of 4 1/2 per cent. but compounding it semi-annually. This security should be attractive to people who are saving for the future rather than seeking an income for current expenditure. The sales of these securities, known as Treasury Savings Certificates, series 1922, had reached $26,144,000 at the end of the first quarter of the year, of $2,000,000 more than the sales of War Savings Certificates for the entire year of 1921.

"There are several reasons for the four-fold increase in the popular market for 'baby bonds.' The tide of prosperity that set in a few months ago and the consequent enhanced purchasing power of the individual is responsible for the absorption of many of these securities, but the new policies of the Republican Administration should be credited with most of the awakened public interest in this form of investment. During the war the Democrats had worked out a scheme by which Thrift Stamps selling for 25 cents, exchangeable for War Savings Stamps selling for $4.12 up according to date of purchase. The latter stamps are redeemable at the end of five years for $5 each, representing a return of 4 per cent., compounded quarterly, on the investment. The sale of these securities was allowed to continue until December of last year when Secretary Mellon put the present plan into effect.

"Thrift stamps and War Savings Stamps are no longer sold. Instead, the public is offered an investment in the shape of Treasury Savings Certificates, selling for $20, $30 and $50 each. They are redeemable in five years for $25, $30, and $50, respectively, showing a return of 4 1/2 per cent. compounded semi-annually. In addition, there is offered a Treasury Savings Stamp for $1. They do not bear interest, but when 20 of them have been collected they may be exchanged for a Certificate. Under the old system no person could buy more than $100 worth of stamps at one time, nor own more than $1,000 worth at one time. Secretary Mellon has removed all restrictions on the amount of sales, except that a limit of $5,000 has been placed on the amount of any series that a single individual may hold.

"The Postoffice Department is working in close co-operation with the Treasury in familiarizing the people with the new opportunity for thrifty investment. Ten-cent postal savings stamps, and all postal savings deposits, may be exchanged for the Treasury Savings Certificates. Certificates and Savings Stamps are on sale at practically all postoffice and banks, or may be bought direct from the Treasury at Washington. This is the first year and the new securities have been available for purchase, and the eagerness with which they have been taken, as compared with the purchases of the former baby bonds, is testimony to the sound judgment of the Treasury officials."

dead in a field near his home Thursday afternoon. He left home early in the morning to finish plowing, and stated that he would return about 10 o'clock. Not returning at noon the family became alarmed and a daughter was sent to the field where she found him lying face downward, and to all appearances had been dead several hours. The team was standing nearby, with plow and harrow loaded ready to return home. He had been in good health and it is thought his death was due to a sunstroke. He was aged about 50 years. Mr. Friedman was a man of splendid traits, and his untimely death will be regretted by a large circle of relatives and friends.

ONE OF AMERICA'S BEST.

The Mt. Sterling Gazette says:
Secretary Wilkerson has closed a contract with J. Barbour Russell, manager, for the appearance of the Maysville Boys' Band, the Kentucky Cardinals, to furnish the music for the Fair at their July meetings, and this world-renowned musical organization will come to our city fifty strong. The Kentucky Cardinals are recognized as one of the leading bands in the country and will, we believe, be a big drawing card for the Fair as they make good music, and everyone likes to see the youngsters and hear them.

The dates of the Fair are Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, July 19, 20, 21 and 22—four big days.

Mrs. R. L. Mattingly, 207 West Sec-

a bad condition with my back and kidneys. I couldn't get my proper rest at night owing to the dull misery in my back. I was feeling so miserable I often had to let my housework go undone. I was dizzy by spells and also suffered from rheumatic pains. I have been so bad that I couldn't walk without pushing a chair in front of me and my lower limbs were very painful. My kidneys were in a bad condition owing to their irregular action. My mother had used Doan's Kidney Pills successfully and that led me to send to Wood boxes. After using them I was all right. I have felt well since using Doan's and recommend them gladly."

GOOD MUSIC SPECIAL FEATURE OF REVIVAL

Tent Meeting at Old Ball Park Is Featured by the Best of Music—Special Sermon for Young Tonight.

Those who were present at the tent
Thursday evening enjoyed a special number given by a mixed quartet. The title of the song is "The Homeland in the Sky." Another feature was a trombone and cornet duet.

Evangelist Howard preached on the subject "Man's Part of His Salvation" taking his text from Acts 16:30:
"What must I do to be saved?" "All that we have to do to be lost forever is to do nothing. The question of soul salvation should be above all other questions, of business and the like.
There are thousands who picture a certain way in future in which they expect to get right with God. But is it the right way?"

"God never saves men against their will. He does convict them but conviction is not salvation. It is a very great blessing to man and you can't get saved without it. You cannot keep saved and break God's laws: 'Thou shalt not kill and Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy' are God's laws. Any man who breaks these is not saved. If we expect to be saved we must give up the sinning business.
God does not save us in sin but from sin. It may be there are hidden sins in your life, but 'Be sure your sins will find you out.'

"If one is ever to be saved he must repent. Repentance is a genuine sorrow for sin and a willingness to quit.
It is marvelous how God helps those who come to Him and are willing to turn from sin. He is ready to save you if you will meet the conditions. Will you do it?"

$5,000 IS LIMIT OF SALARY SHERIFF MAY RECEIVE

But This Sum Is Independent of the Amounts Paid to Deputies and Assistants the Court of Appeals Held on Friday.

A Frankfort dispatch says: The section of the state constitution limiting salaries of sheriffs and other county officials to a maximum of $5,000 a year from the fees collected is mandatory and does not require legislative action to make it operative, the Court of Appeals held Friday.

It reversed a judgment of the Fayette circuit court holding that Paul E. Shipp did not have the right to sue J. Walter Rodes and T. C. Bradley and others for an accounting for fees they collected during their terms in office in Fayette county in excess of $5,000.

Mr. Shipp in November, 1921, sued Mr. Rodes and Mr. Bradley, both former sheriffs, to recover fees in excess of the expenses of their office and $5,000 a year salary.

The lower court held that Mr. Shipp did not have the right to sue because he had not made a demand on the fiscal court of the county that it bring the suit.

The general rule is that a taxpayer before he files suit must make a demand on the fiscal court and that if he is refused, the court said. But in this case it is to be presumed that the fiscal court had knowledge of the fact that fees paid officials were in excess of the constitutional limitation and that therefore they could not be expected to impeach their own actions and Mr. Shipp did not need to make the demand.

"The sheriff is allowed ten per cent. commission on the first $5,000 of taxes collected for the state and county and four per cent. on all over this sum together with fee for certain other services," said the court. "Obviously his right to retain these commissions and fees as salary is subject to the agreement that he shall not receive over $5,000 per annum as compensation for his official services, independent of a corps of legally authorized deputies and assistants."

"This provision of the constitution

UNABLE TO GET SPECIAL TRAIN TO LEXINGTON.

Although the officials of the local baseball club were unable to get a special train to Lexington Sunday for the Maysville-Lexington ball game, it is expected that there will be many local fans journey to Lexington to witness the game. There will be much interest in this game because of the fact that Lexington is now giving Maysville quite a run for first position in the League.

is mandatory; it is the law and it is the duty of the courts to enforce it if needs be to devise means so far as within their power to compel an accounting from every public official who seeks to evade standards of compensation it has fixed.

"This proceeding can be facilitated by legislation fixing the number of deputies, but the absence of any definite limitation should not and does not impair the responsibility for violation of the law."

The court held that it is the duty of the fiscal court to protect the county from the extravagant employment of deputies, payment of exorbitant salaries an other waste.
